

WEDDING PLANNING BLUEPRINT

June 8, 2011

Why Have a Wedding?

We want to be able to share and celebrate our commitment and love with our family and friends.

Style of Wedding:

Outdoor/garden with a classic feel and modern elements. We want it to be modest but still beautiful/romantic/elegant, a lot of fun for our guests, and an experience we will never forget.

Wedding Day Bliss Factors:

- We would like all of our guests to have a wonderful time
- We would like our guests to experience a strong sense of happiness, joy, love, etc
- We would like to have a modestly priced wedding meaning we don't want to spend money just to spend it. But that doesn't mean we have to sacrifice our vision of the wedding.
- We want to keep the guest list intimate in the sense that we only invite those that we are close with
- Laurel wants to look beautiful and doesn't want to become a bridezilla
- Justin would like to share in the excitement and reflect on how lucky we are and to set the stage for the rest of our lives together
- Parents want us to take everything in, share the wedding with people who are close to them, and want whatever we want

What We have to Have:

Flowers, food, open bar, cake, music, dancing, perfect atmosphere, amazing photographer, LOVE.

What We Don't Have to Have:

Live band, D.J., ceremony in place of worship, seated dinner, party favors, something pricey just because it is a brand name.

What Could Go Wrong:

Guest list could get out of hand, any or all of the vendors might not show up, any or all of the vendors could mess something up, it could rain, Laurel could turn into a bridezilla, Justin could turn into a groomzilla.

Wedding Planning Schedule:

The wedding will be on May 27, 2012 (12 months from current time).
